SEVENTEEN LYRICS FROM

"SING-SONG"

(CHRISTINA ROSSETTI)

PART I

[1]

Eight o'clock;
The postman's knock!
Five letters for Papa;
 One for Lou,
 And none for you,
And three for dear Mamma.

Baby cry—
Oh fie!—
At the physic in the cup:
 Gulp it twice
 And gulp it thrice,
Baby gulp it up.

[3]

Dead in the cold, a song-singing thrush,
Dead at the foot of a snowberry bush,—
Weave him a coffin of rush,
Dig him a grave where the soft mosses grow,
Raise him a tombstone of snow.

[4]

Love me,—I love you,
 Love me, my baby;
Sing it high, sing it low,
 Sing it as may be.
Mother's arms under you,
 Her eyes above you;
Sing it high, sing it low,
 Love me,—I love you.

[5]

'Kookoorookoo! kookoorookoo!'
 Crows the cock before the morn;
'Kikirikee! kikirikee!'
 Roses in the east are born.

'Kookoorookoo! kookoorookoo!'
 Early birds begin their singing;
'Kikirikee! kikirikee!'
 The day, the day, the day is springing.

[6]

Boats sail on the rivers,
 And ships sail on the seas;
But clouds that sail across the sky
 Are prettier far than these.

There are bridges on the rivers,
 As pretty as you please;
But the bow that bridges heaven,
 And overtops the trees,
And builds a road from earth to sky,
 Is prettier far than these.

[7]

In the meadow—what in the meadow?
Bluebells, buttercups, meadowsweet,
And fairy rings for the children's feet
 In the meadow.

In the garden—what in the garden?
Jacob's-ladder and Solomon's-seal,
And Love-lies-bleeding beside All-heal
 In the garden.

[8]

The dog lies in his kennel,
And Puss purrs on the rug,
And baby perches on my knee
For me to love and hug.
Pat the dog and stroke the cat
Each in its degree;
And cuddle and kiss my baby,
And baby kiss me.

[9]

Lie abed,
Sleepy head,

Shut up eyes, bo-peep;
Till day-break
Never wake:—
Baby, sleep.

[10]

Mix a pancake,
Stir a pancake,
Pop it in the pan;
Fry the pancake,
Toss the pancake,—
Catch it if you can.

PART II

[1]

Who has seen the wind?
Neither I nor you:
But when the leaves hang trembling,
The wind is passing thro'.

Who has seen the wind?
Neither you nor I:
But when the trees bow down their heads,
The wind is passing by.

[2]

Dancing on the hilltops,
Singing in the valleys,
Laughing with the echoes,
Merry little Alice.

Playing games with lambkins
In the flowering valleys,
Gathering pretty posies,
Helpful little Alice.

If her father's cottage
Turned into a palace,
And he owned the hilltops
And the flowering valleys,
She'd be none the happier,
Happy little Alice.

[3]

A pocket handkerchief to hem—
Oh dear, oh dear, oh dear!
How many stitches it will take
Before it's done, I fear.

Yet set a stitch and then a stitch,
And stitch and stitch away,
Till stitch by stitch the hem is done—
And after work is play!

[4]

A motherless soft lambkin
Alone upon a hill;
No mother's fleece to shelter him
And wrap him from the cold:—
I'll run to him and comfort him,
I'll fetch him, that I will;
I'll care for him and feed him
Until he's strong and bold.

[5]

Lullaby, oh lullaby!
Flowers are closed and lambs are sleeping;
Lullaby, oh lullaby!
Stars are up, the moon is peeping;
Lullaby, oh lullaby!

While the birds are silence keeping,
 (Lullaby, oh lullaby !)
Sleep, my baby, fall a-sleeping,
 Lullaby, oh lullaby !

[6]

Hurt no living thing:
 Ladybird, nor butterfly,
Nor moth with dusty wing,
 Nor cricket chirping cheerily,
Nor grasshopper so light of leap.
 Nor dancing gnat, nor beetle fat,
Nor harmless worms that creep.

[7]

Minnie and Mattie
 And fat little May,
Out in the country,
 Spending a day.

Such a bright day,
 With the sun glowing,
And the trees half in leaf,
 And the grass growing.

Pinky white pigling
 Squeals through his snout,
Woolly white lambkin
 Frisks all about.

Cluck! cluck! the nursing hen
 Summons her folk,—
Ducklings all downy soft,
 Yellow as yolk.

Cluck! cluck! the mother hen
 Summons her chickens
To peck the dainty bits
 Found in her pickings.

Minnie and Mattie
 And May carry posies,
Half of sweet violets,
 Half of primroses.

Give the sun time enough,
 Glowing and glowing,
He'll rouse the roses
 And bring them blowing.

Don't wait for roses,
 Losing to-day,
O Minnie, Mattie,
 And wise little May.

Violets and primroses
 Blossom to-day
For Minnie and Mattie
 And fat little May.
