Farris, spokesman for the Pacific coast province.

MEET SPECIFIC NEEDS

IT was suggested to Senator Parris by Commissioner J. W. Dafoe, how-ever, that uniformity in the application of debt allowances and subsidies was of debt allowances and subsidies was not a principle accepted by the Do-minion in practice. Such allowances had been used basically to meet specific circumstances in various provinces, Mr. Dafoe said, as indicated in a House of Commons debate of was increased to $8,000,000.

W. E. Massey, principal auditor of Prince Edward Island, followed Senator Farris with a supplementary statement of the Prince Edward Island Government's support of the principle of con-tributory old age pensions.

At the same time Prince Edward Island considered non-contributory old age pensions should be retained for unable to make regular con-
