CHAP. 36.

An Act to amend the General Inspection Act.

[Assented to 23rd June, 1887.]

Preamble. R.S.C., c. 99. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The General Inspection Act" by allowing the inspection of flour to be made by sample, and the packages containing such flour to be branded accordingly, and also by changing the classification of the various qualities of flour: Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Section 30 amended by adding the following thereto as sub-section two:—

"2. Whenever flour is sold by sample and the inspector or deputy inspector is requested by the owner or the purchaser of such flour to inspect the same by such sample, he shall, notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, inspect the same accordingly and, instead of branding or marking the barrels as hereinbefore provided, he shall certify on the bill of inspection whether the whole or a portion only, and in the latter case what portion, of the flour is equal to the sample delivered to him for the purpose of making the inspection, and he shall also certify as to the weight and soundness of the flour."

Section 31 repealed; new provision. 2. Section thirty-one of the said Act is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

"31. In branding or marking the different qualities or descriptions of flour, the same shall be designated as follows:— That of a very superior quality } { 'Patent (winter wheat)'; (roller process) by the words } { 'Patent (spring wheat)'; That of the second quality, (roller } { 'Straight roller'; process) by the words } { 'Extra'; That of the third quality, by the word—'Superfine'; That of the fourth quality, by the word—'Strong bakers.'"
