

Dedicated to the Sons of Empire responding to their Country's Call.

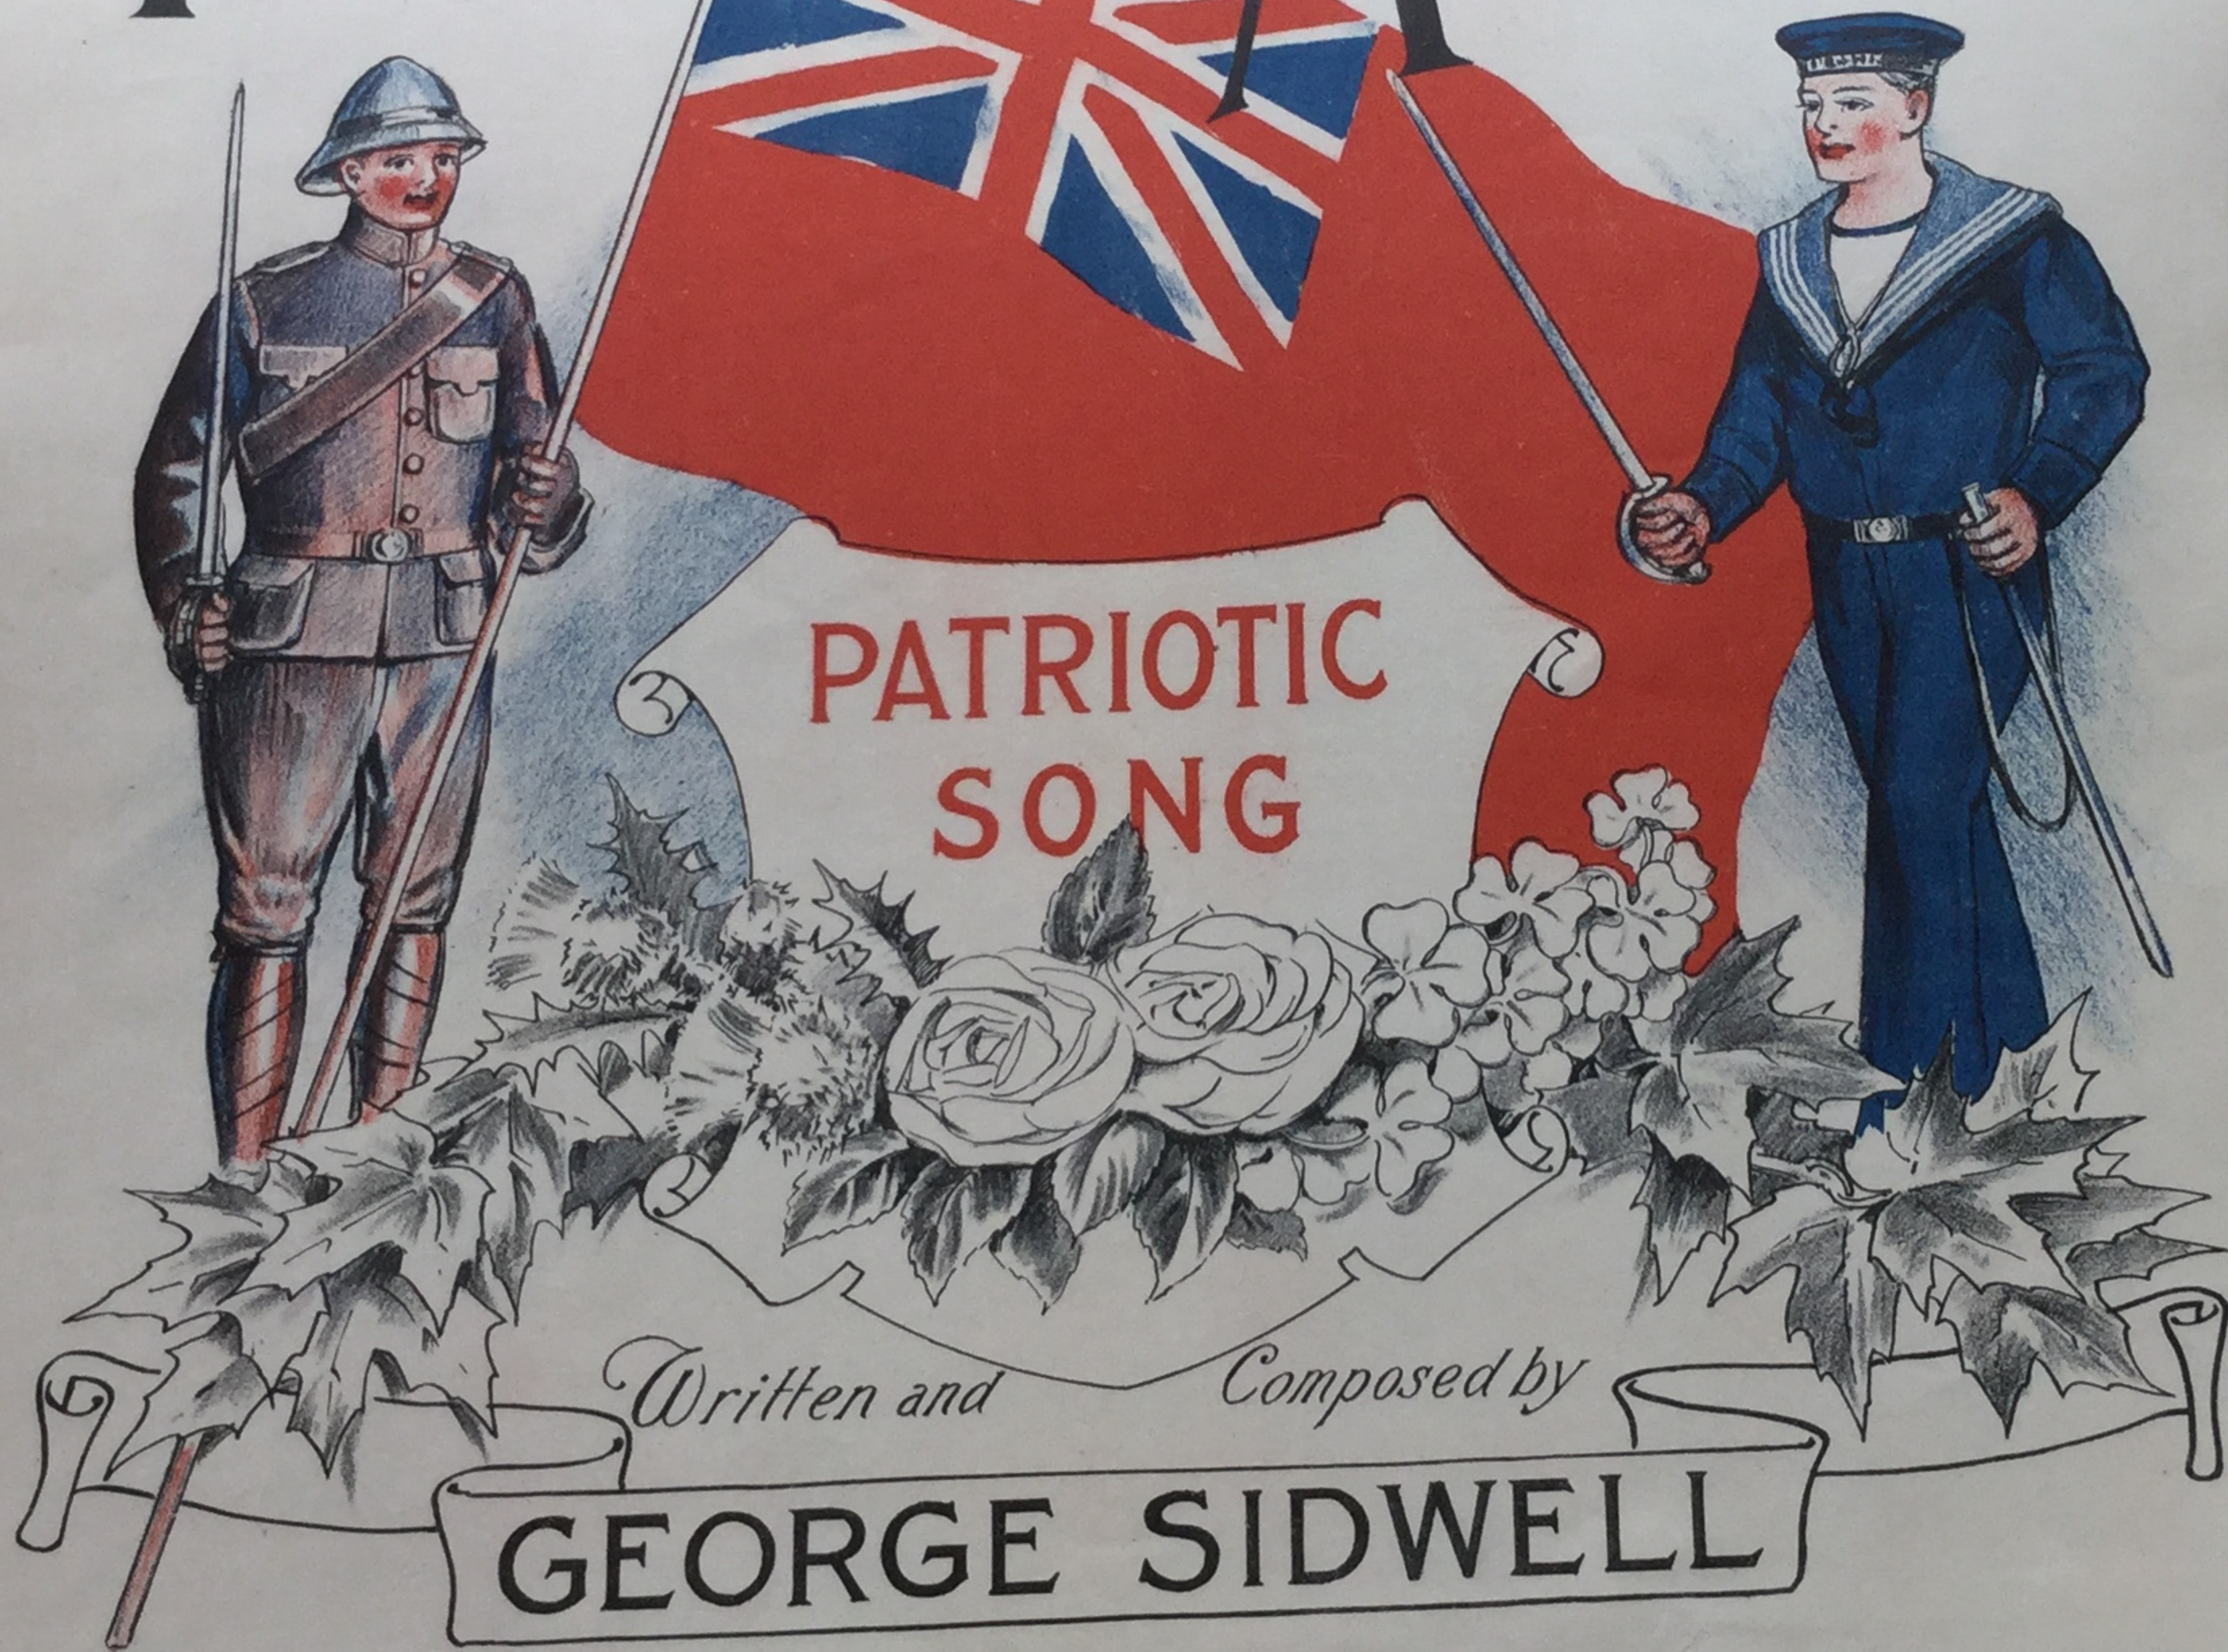

No 1 in G

No 2 in Bb

THE FLAG WE ALL ADMIRE

Price 50 cents

2/

Published by The Young Loyalists' League
HAMILTON — CANADA

The Flag We All Admire

Words and Music by George Sidwell

VOICE

PIANO

Fly - ing o'er the wide, wide o - cean, Float - ing o - ver ma - ny lands,
Does the Em-pire's need de-mand us, Does the Moth-er call her sons,

Bear - ing trib-ute just - ly ten-der'd, Proud - ly raised by stal - wart hands;
Rea - dy to the call re-spond-ing Draw the sword or mount the guns;

Copyright, Canada } MCMXIV by George Sidwell
U. S. Copyright }

British Copyright secured

Em - blem of the great - est free - dom, Love and fel - low - ship combined,
Rea - dy aye for Bri - tain's glo - ry, Nev - er shall her sons say "nay,"

No - bly, firm - ly, strong and pa - tient, Truth and loy - al - ty en - twined.
Our old flag, our free - dom's em - blem, We will fol - low thro' the fray.

CHORUS

'Tis the flag that car - ries free - dom, — Where - er it proud - ly waves,

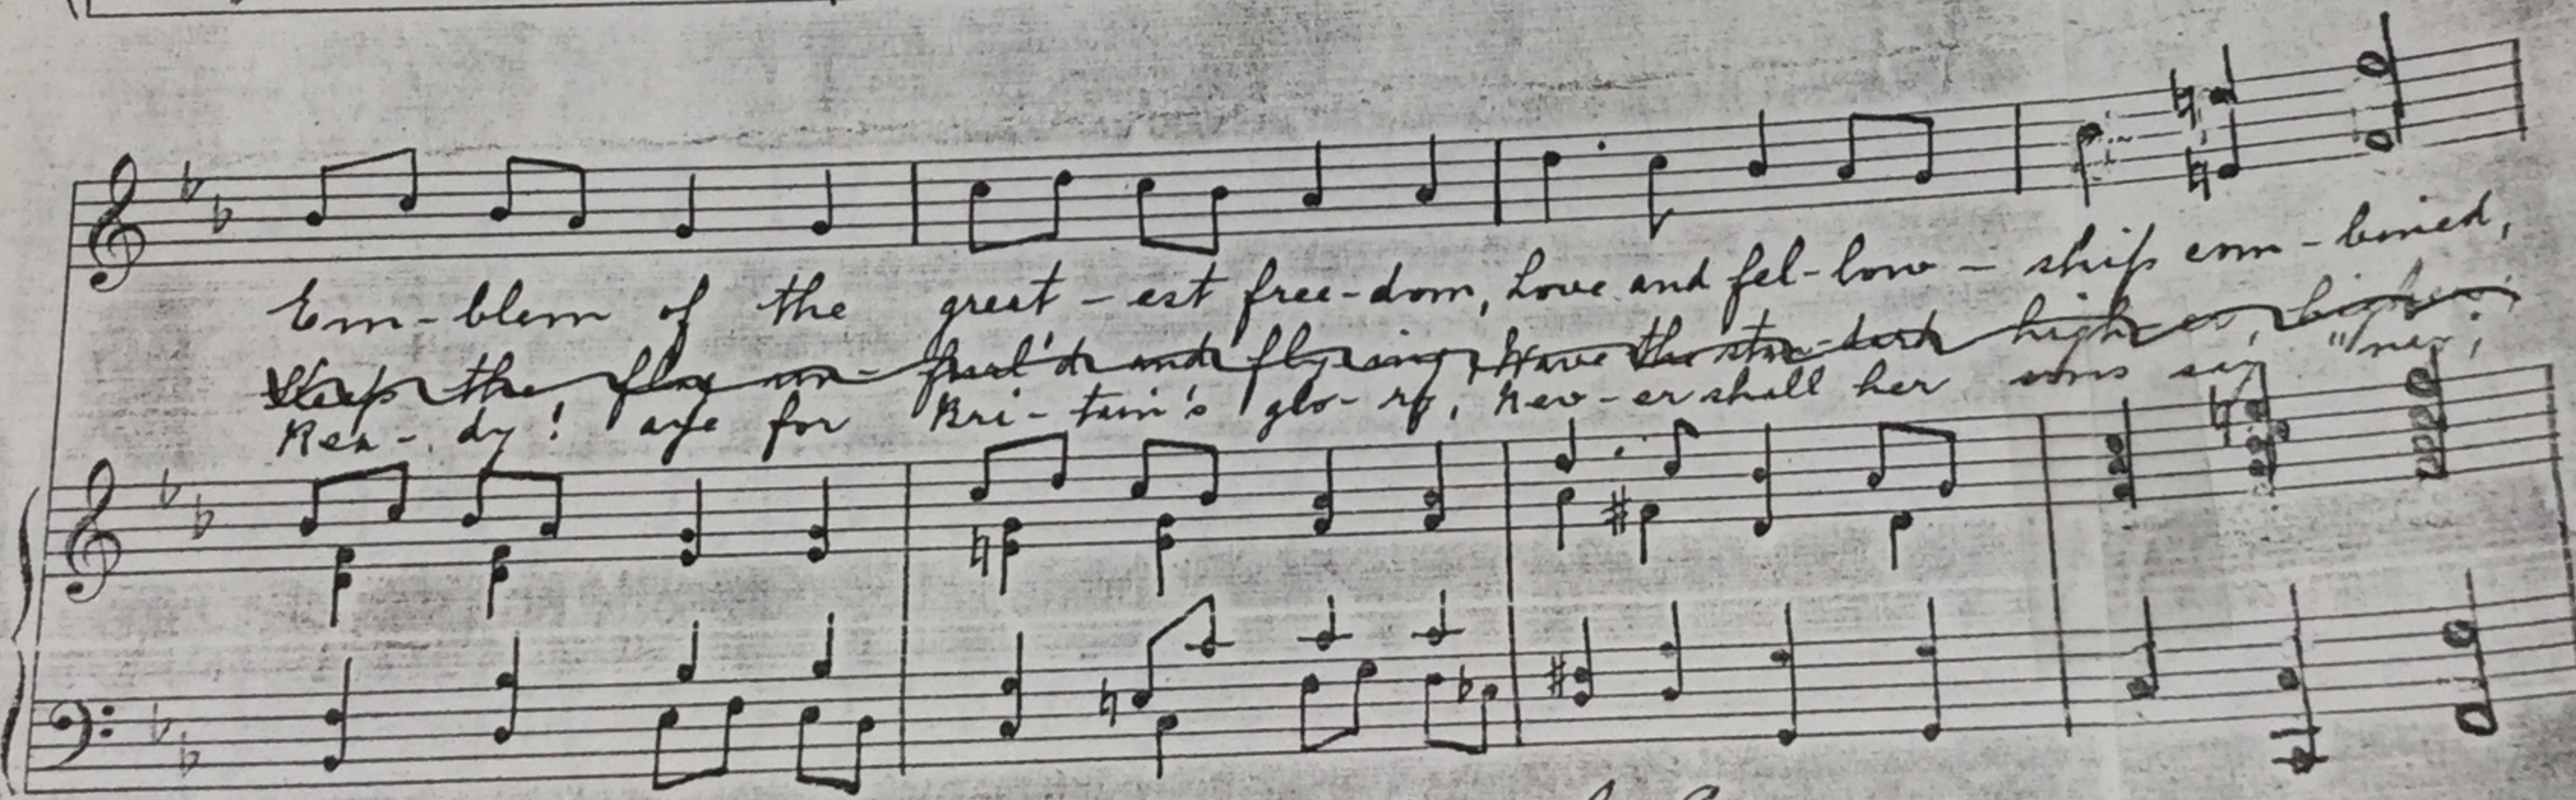

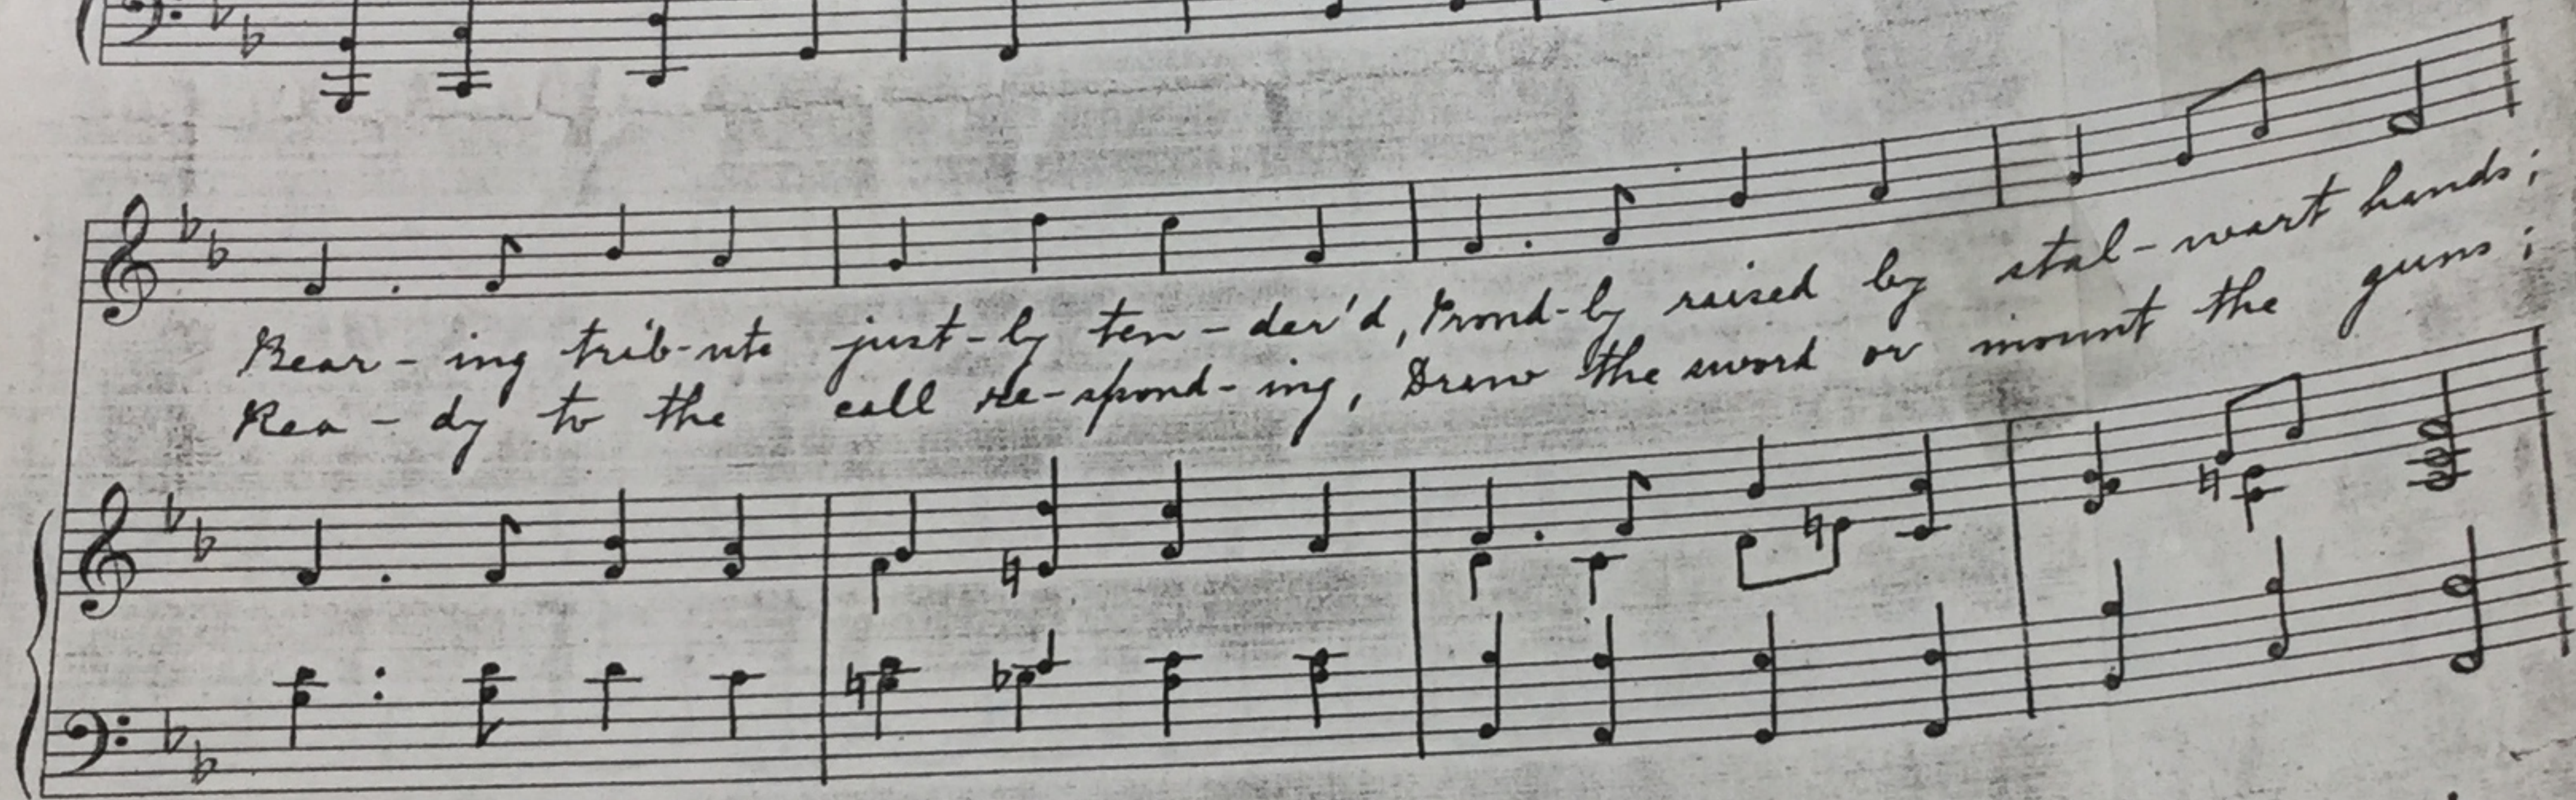

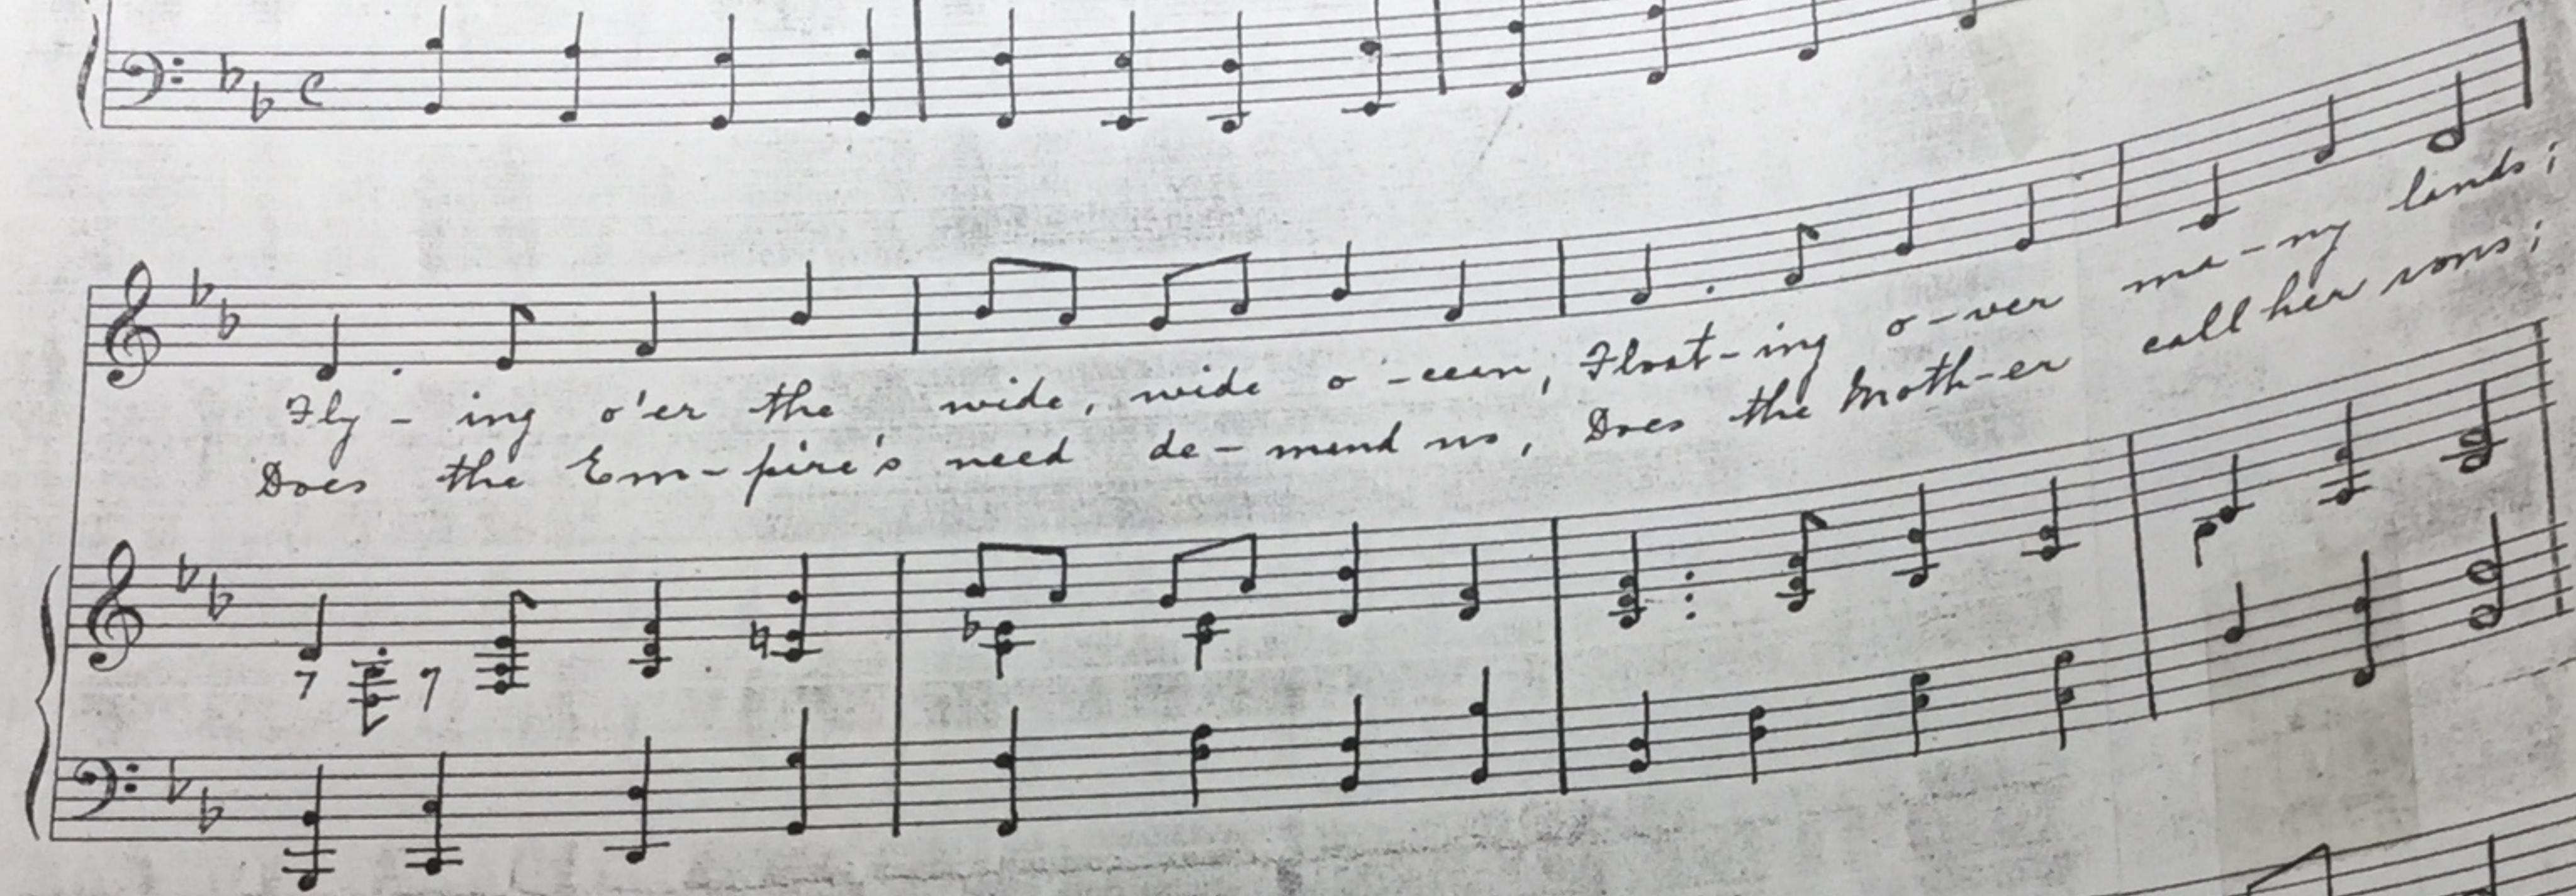

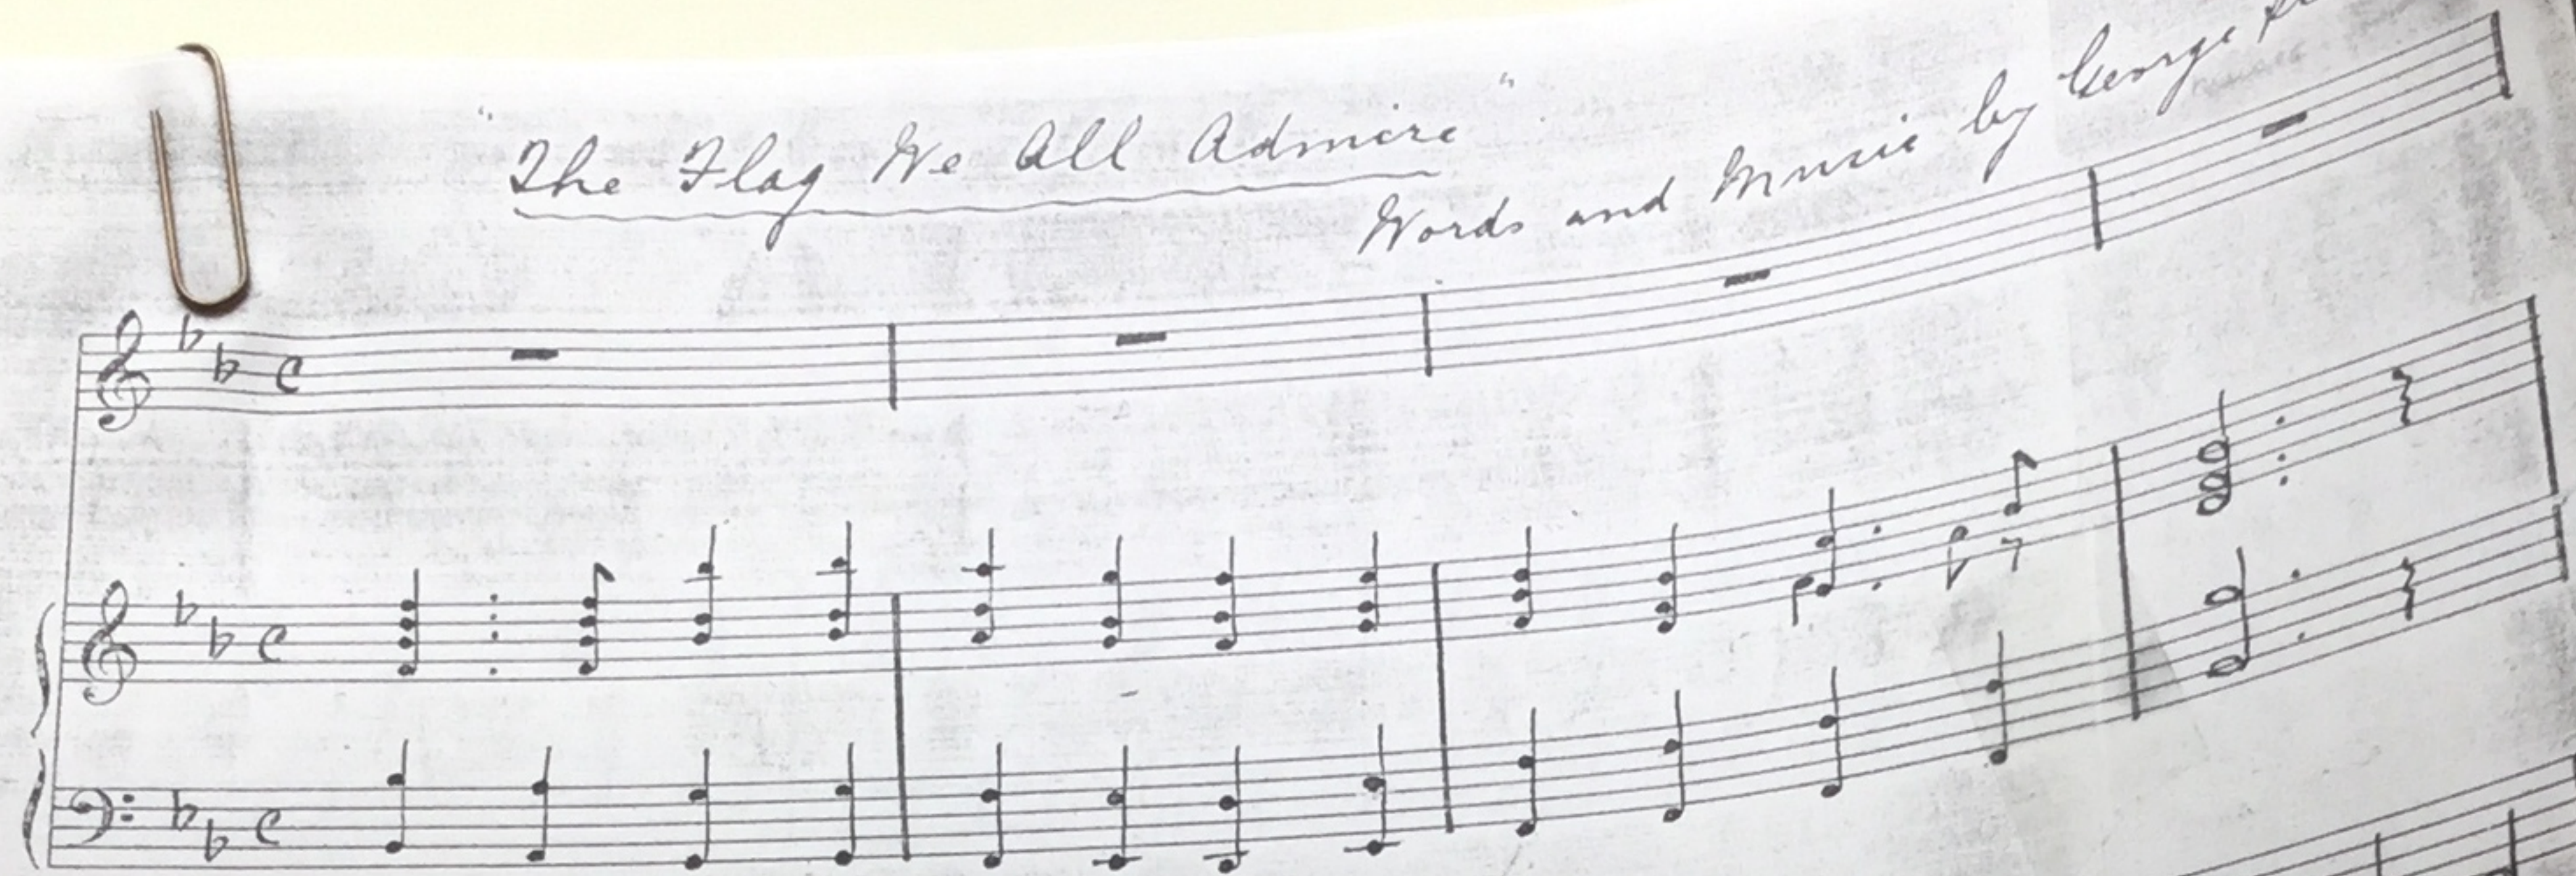

Pro - claim - ing to the na - tions "Her sons shall ne'er be slaves,"

Keep the flag un - furl'd and fly - ing, Wave the standard high - er, high - er! We'll pro - tect the nation's hon - our And the flag we all ad - mire.

The Flag We All Admire

Words and Music by George Fiddler

Copyright 1914 by G. Fiddler